

Family Days Tried And Tested

Adventuring through childhood... with love and dysfunction in tow

www.familydaystriedandtested.com

ABOUT THE BLOG

Family Days Tried and Tested provides inspiration to make everyday family life fun. It's all about frugal activities for kids of all ages, getting outside and parenting honesty.

The Family Days family are Mr and Mrs FD and their 8 children. (Yes, you read that right.) The kids range from toddler to adult so if there's a parenting situation you want to know about, the FD family have been there already. And can laugh about it now. We're all winging it.

Family Days Tried and Tested began in 2012 and has grown into an award-winning blog with a huge, and supportive, parent community across the world.
